LIV-EX Blog – 25 Avril 2013

Each year Liv-ex surveys the international wine trade upon their return from tasting the new Bordeaux vintage. The survey is designed to track the consensus of opinion amongst the best professional tasters of young Bordeaux. Liv-ex's membership numbers more than 420 of the world's biggest buyers and sellers of fine wine.

In summary, as voted by the Liv-ex Membership:

Grand Puy Lacoste tops the value for money category for the third year in a row

List in order of preference your top ten value wines from 2012 (value wines are wines with an expected release price of less than £500 per case)

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1. Grand Puy Lacoste | 6. Clerc Milon |
| 2. Clos du Marquis | 7. Croix de Beaucaillou |
| 3. Gazin | 8. Alter Ego Palmer |
| 4. Domaine de Chevalier | 9. Cantemerle |
| 5. Brane Cantenac | 10. Haut Batailley |

Those wines expected to be released at under £500 per case were ranked as above. Grand Puy Lacoste takes the top spot in the value wines top ten for the third year in a row, while Clos du Marquis and Gazin make impressive debuts as second and third place respectively.
